

A note regarding the MARCH 2019 installment: This installment is a little different and special in the sense that I captured a peaceful space of personal worship time in my living room. There is a strong anointing for rest and peace on it, so if you are having trouble sleeping, you may want to play this. It's a great soaking track as it is even and steady in the space of rest. I hope you enjoy it and it brings you into a place of overwhelming peace and revelation of your place safe in Him.
